Bright and cheery cottage in the heart of West Asheville, impeccably maintained and well loved by the current owner. The level sunny fenced in yard is perfect for gardening, children, pets and entertaining. Walk to restaurants, schools, grocery, medical, hardware, library or whatever needs you may have. The storage unit in the backyard is dry and well kept with an upstairs attic for more storage space. The lot is large enough for someone to build an ADU, the current owner has already done the research. Please see the attached feature sheet for all of the wonderful assets that come with this charmer!
